Dear Fellow Members,

I hope this Causeway finds you and your families well. I hope you are healthy and adjusting to all the changes we are each experiencing. It is hard to believe we are beginning the second quarter of the League Year. In many ways, it seems like we have barely begun, and in so many other ways, it is evident that we have already accomplished so much. While this League Year may not have begun as expected, we are well positioned as we enter our 90th year, to face the challenges that come our way head-on.

With so much uncertainty in our world, I have been immensely encouraged by the many ways in which our members have answered the call to serve. In the face of great need and great opportunity, our committees have shown remarkable grace and flexibility. Their ability to pivot to best meet the changing needs of our community has been extraordinary.

Our Kids in the Kitchen Committee has provided over 7,000 food supplies to community partners since virtually day one of this pandemic that shook our community. Our Back-to-School Care Fair Committee completely reinvented our signature community event to ensure students still get the supplies they need to be successful in school – no matter what their classroom may look like. Our Diversity and Inclusion Committee has tripled in size, provided countless learning opportunities for our members, completed hours of training and development themselves, and planned an impressive framework to ensure continued commitment to growth in Diversity and Inclusion within our League. Our Public Affairs Committee has spearheaded a Suffragettes Series, highlighting some of the many women from marginalized communities who championed the cause of suffrage. These are just a few of the standout examples of committees who have answered the call from our community during a time of need.

We have managed to amass a Provisional class of over 37 women interested in joining our League family – even amid Zoom meetings and virtual socials. Over half of these eager and passionate women have already joined one or more of this year’s Ad Hoc Committees. We are thrilled to welcome them into our League and to serve alongside them.

As we reflect on our 90th Anniversary, a time for great celebration, we are grateful for the incredible legacy so many before us have built. We are committed to continuing that Legacy for generations to come. We have some big goals this year, not the least of which is to raise $90,000 in honor of our 90th Anniversary. This is a major goal, but one that we believe is attainable and necessary. Stay tuned for much more information and many more opportunities to be involved this year as we celebrate and honor our League’s rich history.

Yours in service,

Megan L. Roach
Hello Junior Leaguers!

It is hard to believe we are wrapping up our first quarter of the 2020-2021 League Year. While we may not have had the opportunity to gather together in-person yet this League Year, our members have come together virtually to meet our community’s COVID-19 needs, address the civil unrest our country is experiencing and devise the framework to reach our 90th anniversary and annual plan goals. This League Year will truly be one for the records!

In addition to the wonderful work Megan noted in her perspective, this edition of The Causeway illustrates the hard work behind the scenes our councils have executed that have allowed us to achieve these noteworthy milestones.

- Our Fashion Show and Gala committees have been combined this year to form the new Event Committee, now in charge of planning both events. This committee collaborated with the Communications Council to host an online summer auction to continue to make headway towards their financial goals.
- The Literacy Committee is working closely with our D&I ad-hoc to ensure the $10,000 Pinellas County Foundation grant JLSP has been awarded includes diverse books ALL of our community can identify with.
- The Membership Council has completely revamped the Member Mentor role to provide an engaging and fulfilling experience for our membership at GMMs and league events.
- The Website Committee has met extensively with AJLI to guarantee a seamless integration of our new Member Essentials Plus platform on the JLSP website all members will enjoy.
- As we head to the ballot box this election year, the Public Affairs Committee is hard at work educating our members on the suffragettes that paved the way and important items on the ballot in November.

JLSP has also ensured our members have felt connected even when we are apart. We’ve hosted several engaging online webinars with the great AJLI’s Vicki Clark and our endowment partner, Denyee Boyle at the Community Foundation of Tampa Bay. Our Communications Council has developed an extensive communications plan that includes weekly e-blasts and daily social media posts to members. As we navigate the COVID-19 situation, we will continue to monitor member feedback and react appropriately to meet our member’s needs.

I have never been more proud to serve alongside the passionate women of the Junior League of St. Petersburg. Together we’ve already accomplished so much! I look forward to sharing with you the progress the Management Team and our councils continue to make throughout the 2020-2021 League Year.

-Alexis E. Carlon
On March 4, 2021, the Junior League of St. Petersburg will celebrate its 90th anniversary. The 90th Anniversary Ad Hoc Committee has been tasked with celebrating and honoring this amazing milestone.

The Ad Hoc Committee will be celebrating our history via several events, including a fundraising drive for the Endowment and Annual Giving Funds, an evening cocktail party, and an anniversary luncheon in the spring. We will be honoring our history by recognizing the contributions of our volunteers, hosting special community service events, and educating our membership and the community at large about the past 90 years of JLSP involvement in our fine city.

The 90th Anniversary Ad Hoc Committee has been busy this summer, formatting our plan to celebrate and honor the JLSP over the course of this year. I am lucky to have an amazing committee of dedicated Provisionals, Actives, and Sustainers who are working to create an amazing celebration for you. But, we can’t do it alone!

Every member can help support the 90th Anniversary! Soon, you will receive a mailing in regards to our Endowment and Annual Giving fundraising drive. Every gift, no matter the amount, helps us to get closer to our fundraising goal. Please consider making a donation when you receive the request.

Members can also help by spreading the word – share the 90th Anniversary social media posts. Let your followers know about the impact the JLSP has made on St. Petersburg over the last 90 years. Participate in our community service events, which will continue our 90 year effort on improving the community around us.

And consider attending one, or all, of our planned celebration events. We are still working through the details of these events, but we promise they will be planned with a consideration of everyone’s safety. From the entire 90th Anniversary Ad Hoc Committee, thank you for helping to support our goals of celebrating and honoring the JLSP.

Cheers to 90 Years!

Chloe Firebaugh, 90th Anniversary Ad Hoc Chair
History of the JLSP:
1920’s – 1940’s

The Junior League of St. Petersburg was started in 1927 and was originally called the St. Petersburg Junior Service Club. The organization was established by Mailande Holland Barton (pictured right), Martha Eustis, and Margaret Wallace. The St. Petersburg Junior Service Club’s mission in 1927 was to positively impact the community in the areas of health, literacy and nutrition. This mission continues to be the driving force in our League today.

Although she was not given the official title, Mailande Holland Barton served as president of The St. Petersburg Junior Service Club. Under Barton’s leadership the organization focused primarily on ensuring underserved children were fed and clothed, the mentally disabled were cared for and those without a home were provided a shelter. On the JLSP website there are stories about Barton from her granddaughter, Becker Holland and daughter-in-law, Carol Holland. These stories truly illustrate the extraordinary and brave woman she was!

The St. Petersburg Junior Service Club was established in a very prosperous time for our community. The state’s first big growth boom brought an invasion of tourists who arrived by auto, railroad, and yacht. In 1924, the Gandy Bridge opened, cutting travel time to Tampa in half and positioning St. Petersburg to become Pinellas County's largest city. You can see that economic boom even today in neighborhoods like the Old Northeast! However, while parts of St. Petersburg were prospering, other areas were in dire need of support. The St. Petersburg Junior Service Club launched various programs to address our community’s needs.

The Milk Fund (bottom left): One of the first programs The St. Petersburg Junior Service Club established the Milk Fund. Members solicited donations to obtain milk for our local schools. The Milk Fund ensured children and their families would not be deprived from the nutrititional value of milk.

Well Baby Clinics (bottom right): Members also launched Well Baby, Sick Baby Clinics as well as dental clinics throughout St. Petersburg to help children within the community. Through this program, the first baby incubator was purchased for Mound Park Hospital (now Bayfront Medical Center). The organization also employed a trained social worker in order to help find and focus on families who could benefit from these services.
History of the JLSP: 1920’s – 1940’s

The Children’s Play Bureau (left): Each year, League members performed a play for children in our community. Members became actors and brought to life various children’s classics, such as Rapunzel, Rumplestilskin, and Aladdin and his Magic Lamp. Through this initiative, a partnership with the Parent/Teacher Association was established to ensure transportation would be provided so all could attend the performances.

The Great Depression occurred in 1929, making the projects of The St. Petersburg Junior Service Club in even more demand. This recession impacted everyone in the community, including The Junior Service Club. During the 1930 – 1931 fiscal year, the organization lost all of its funds because of a bank failure. However, they were still able to rally and provide services to the community.

Even with all the economic factors affecting the organization, The St. Petersburg Junior Service Club still marched forward. Led by President Edith Collins, the Junior Service Club applied for and received admittance into the Association of Junior Leagues of America (now Association of Junior League International - AJLI) after just four short years of establishment! On March 4, 1931 The St. Petersburg Junior Service Club was renamed The Junior League of St. Petersburg. For 90 years we have celebrated this date as our League’s anniversary!

In the 1930’s, the newly named Junior League of St. Petersburg continued to organized a variety of fundraisers. From Cabaret Balls and costume-themed parties to talent shows, member’s of the JLSP organized many events to further our mission. The 1920’s and 1930’s were a busy and life-changing time for both the community and the Junior League of St. Petersburg. These two decades helped to shape our organization into what it is today.
ENDOWMENT UPDATE

At the end of the 2019-2020 League Year, the incoming Executive Team met and established aggressive fundraising goals for the 2020-2021 90th Anniversary League Year. This year we are committed to raising $90,000 in honor of our 90th Anniversary. Of that, a minimum of $30,000 will go directly to our Endowment Fund. Once we raise that goal of $30,000, the Community Foundation of Tampa Bay will match us with a $10,000 contribution!

In March 2020, under the leadership of 2019-2020 JLSP President, Erin Whittemore Lohmiller, a Founder’s Day event was held at our new headquarters location. All members were invited to attend a morning coffee party or evening happy hour to take a trip down memory lane and make a contribution to the endowment. The event was wildly successful! JLSP members and local elected officials helped us raise over $10,000 in one day!

As we kickoff the new League Year, the 90th Anniversary Fundraising Subcommittee is hard at work planning campaigns to bolster our Endowment Fund. Our commitment to growing our Endowment ensures our League is not only prepared for a rainy day but can benefit annually from the fruits of this labor. Our current total raised is $10,105. If you have questions or would like to make a contribution to our Endowment, please email Erin Whittemore Lohmiller and Hannah Gross, fundraising@jlstpete.org.

Throughout the one-hour session, Vicki touched on the changes our world has undergone during the 90-year history of JLSP. From technology advancements to community issues, the world looks a lot different than it did when JLSP was organized; however, one thing has remained the same: women. JLSP is comprised of women volunteers with a vision to empower, educate, advocate and serve. For our league of women to build better communities, we must support and build up each other, now more than ever. Our love for each other and commitment to progress over perfection will enable us to continue to have a lasting impact on our community.

While COVID-19 may have derailed how we envisioned starting off the 2020-2021 League Year, Vicki encouraged attendees to rise to the occasion and continue to be the change. We are JLSP and while you may feel on your own right now, we are a group of women here to support each other. Together we will go far. Members who attended the session left empowered, refreshed and motivated to take on the league year.
JLSP is committed to promoting literacy and early reading readiness among our youngest readers in St. Petersburg. This year, our league received a generous grant from the Pinellas Community Foundation that will help us reach our literacy goals.

The Literacy Committee plans to partner with several of our local elementary schools to support literacy and early reading readiness by providing culturally relevant literature for their students. The Literacy Committee also plans to offer quick and easy reading strategies and reading tips for parents to foster literacy success and an early love of reading! Our goal is to get books into as many readers hands as possible. We want our local readers to find the magic within a book!

“You can find magic wherever you look. Sit back and relax. All you need is a book.” -Dr. Seuss

KIDS CREATE!
By: Amanda Hurm, Chair

The Kids Create committee has been working hard putting together take away craft kits. Due to COVID-19, the kits are designed for at home creative activities. The committee is partnering with Kids in the Kitchen (KITK) to provide approximately 360 craft kits to accompany the meals to be distributed this month to the Boys and Girls Club.

Committee members are putting together more than 1,000 take away craft kits for this year’s Care Fair event. The kits will be included in the back packs distributed to students at the end of this month.

LITERACY IN ACTION: DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

The Literacy and Diversity and Inclusion committees have partnered to provide a more diverse book offering to our community. These books will be distributed at future JLSP events. If you have a little one at home we encourage you to check out some of our titles:

- The Youngest Marcher
- The Snowy Day
- Lola Loves Stories
- Lola at the Library
- Max Found Two Sticks
- Whoosh!
In 1997, the Junior League of St. Petersburg saw an opportunity to help local children reach educational success by coordinating a free Back to School Care Fair. Since then, the number of children served has annually and steadily increased into the thousands and so have the financial needs. The goal of Care Fair has always been to prepare students K-12 with the necessary resources to start the school year ready for success. Over the last two decades, Care Fair has provided an estimated 7,300 medical exams, 26,500 backpacks with school supplies, distributed thousands of age-appropriate chapter books and dedicated countless volunteer hours to the children and families most in need of these resources.

Due to COVID 19, we have had to pivot and re-imagine Care Fair 2020. So many families in our community are in really tough spots financially. The last thing they should have to worry about is the ability to afford school supplies and physicals for their kids. The community has really rallied around us, and due to the generosity of so many, we are able to supply 1100 children with backpacks. To date, we have raised over $10k in monetary donations. Because of this generosity AND the generous donations from Amazon Wishlist purchases, we have received a total of 26,270 supplies! #doingabighappydance

Each backpack will include the following school supplies: composition books, folders, pens, pencils, crayons, highlighters, & glue sticks. We are also so very grateful to be able to provide the kids with 1,100 snack packs, books, and customizable bookmarks. For the first time ever, we are THRILLED to also be providing “medical packs” that consist of band aids, masks, toothbrushes, toothpaste, and hand sanitizer. Johnnie Ruth Clarke has provided us with vouchers that allow kids to schedule their medical, optical, and dental exams at a time when it is safe to do so. We’ve also received multiple community resource handouts to place in the bags that offer desperately needed community services.

We will be delivering these stuffed bags over the next few weeks to Johnnie Ruth Clarke, John Hopkins Middle School, Azalea Middle, New Heights Elementary, Woodlawn Elementary, and Fairmont Elementary. All of these schools have established meal distributions for the children that live in the area surrounding their school. This allows us to serve a wider range of students and we couldn’t be more thrilled.

To everyone that has supported our mission, THANK YOU. Because of you, the lives of so many will be impacted in such a positive way. Because of you, one less family will have to worry about making sure their child is prepared to succeed. Because of you, our community will be a better (and happier) place.

COVID-19 is much more than a health crisis. It is a human, economic and social crisis. The coronavirus disease (COVID-19), which has been characterized as a pandemic by the World Health Organization (WHO), is attacking communities at their core, leaving everyone in unknown territory trying to navigate a new “normal”.

Within our community of Pinellas County, there are 36,000 children who are food insecure, meaning a household’s economic and/or social condition provides limited or uncertain access to adequate food. Out of this number, 7,000 Pinellas children are chronically hungry. This means that children have little or no access to food when they are not in school on weekends, holidays, or vacations. In March Pinellas County Schools suspended in person classes for the remainder of the school year, leaving children who depend on the free and reduced lunch program and their families to navigate yet another obstacle during this challenging time.

Coretta Scott King once said, “the greatness of a community is most accurately measured by the compassionate actions of its members.” The Junior League of St. Petersburg members knew that they needed to do what they could to bridge the gap to not let these children go without. Without hesitation, members reached out to our community partners to see how we could partner to reach these children and their families. Our existing partner, The Boys & Girls Club, and the Kids in the Kitchen committee collaborated on what both organizations felt made the most sense to reach the community in an impactful way.

At the end of March, it was decided that bi-weekly deliveries to the Boys & Girls Club with 360 snack packs, the equivalent of 2 meals for a child per pack, would be distributed on Friday’s nightly dinner distribution to the community through the 6 Pinellas County Boys & Girls Club locations. Through the help of Junior League volunteers and the members of our community, JLSP has been able to donate 4,850 meals (2,425 snack packs), 300 books, and has raised $3,010 in support. This project will continue for as long as our community needs as well as the funding and donations stay consistent.

If you have any questions about this project or efforts, please email Kelsey Nolan at kitk@jlspete.org.
SUFFRAGETTES SERIES

By: Whitney Green, Public Affairs Chair

CELEBRATING SUFFRAGE

August 18, 2020 marks the centennial anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which prohibits voting discrimination on the basis of sex. The struggle for federal suffrage was the culmination of the work of many women and allies over several decades, and was a watershed moment for women's participation in civic life. However, for many women, the fight to exercise their new found right to vote did not end in 1920. Black, Indigenous, and other Women of Color had to contend with several more decades of discriminatory legislation, policies, and physical terror aimed at disenfranchising them. Representation and equitable access to the political process for all citizens is more important than ever.

The Public Affairs Committee and the Diversity and Inclusion Ad Hoc are teaming up to present a Suffragette Series, highlighting women from historically marginalized groups who were leaders in the struggle to pass the 19th Amendment and beyond. The posts will run monthly in e-blasts and on JLSP social media through the end of the League year. It is our hope that by educating ourselves about these courageous women, we can appreciate the complexities of suffrage as a social justice movement, and reflect upon how we can be stewards of their legacies to create a more equitable and just future.

Mary McLeod Bethune

We are kicking off this series with Floridian Mary McLeod Bethune. Bethune was born in 1875 in South Carolina to parents who were former slaves. In 1894, Bethune graduated from Scotia Seminary, and subsequently became an educator. In the early 1900s, she moved her family to Palatka, Florida, and opened a boarding school for African American girls that later became Bethune-Cookman College. Bethune joined the Equal Suffrage League in 1912 and was active in efforts to secure voting rights for black women. After the 19th Amendment was ratified, she worked to combat state laws aimed at disenfranchising minority and poor voters by raising money to pay poll taxes and teaching nighttime reading classes to help black voters pass literacy tests. In addition to her prolific civil rights work with local and national organizations, Bethune opened the first black hospital in Daytona, which treated patients during the 1918 influenza outbreak. Bethune developed a close relationship with First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt and served on an advisory board to the President known as the “Black Cabinet.” The Cabinet advised the Roosevelt administration on issues facing black Americans. Bethune died on May 18, 1955. She was inducted into the National Women’s Hall of Fame in 1973.

Sojourner Truth

2020 marks the centennial of the passage of the 19th Amendment, which prohibits voting discrimination on the basis of sex. The Junior League of St. Petersburg is proud to celebrate suffrage with our monthly series highlighting a few of the many women from marginalized communities who championed the cause of suffrage and fought long after the 19th Amendment's passage to secure its promise for all women.

A former slave, Sojourner Truth is the first known African American suffragist known for her outspoken advocacy for abolition, along with civil and women’s rights in the 19th century. Her overwhelming presence, personal magnetism, and unique style captivated audiences and won skeptics to the cause. In 1851, Truth began a lecture tour where she delivered her famous “Ain’t I a Woman?” speech where she challenged notions of racial and gender inferiority and inequality.

During the Civil War, she encouraged young men to join the Union and organized supplies for Black troops. After the war, she was received by President Lincoln in the White House and was appointed “counselor to the freed people” later that year for helping freed slaves find jobs and build new lives.

After working so hard to plan for and execute the 2020 Annual Literacy Gala, the event unfortunately needed to be cancelled due to COVID-19 impacts. In order to make up for having to cancel the biggest fundraiser of the year, the Event Committee quickly pivoted in order to put on an incredibly successful Online Auction that raised nearly $3,000 for the Junior League of St. Petersburg’s Projects and Programs.

The committee compiled a total of 30 in-kind donations intended to be auctioned at the Literacy Gala in March, and put together a number of luxurious packages for Event Attendees to bid on throughout the first week of July. Items included a 3 Daughters Brewing Gift Basket, a luxury golf outing at Saddlebrook Resort, several spa treatments at Indulgence Medical Day Spa, a day on the water featuring kayaking, multiple health and fitness package, a self-care package including blowouts at J.Con Salon, and much more.

It was the first time the Junior League of St. Petersburg had attempted a virtual auction, and the with the help of our Communications Council, Event Committee pulled it off flawlessly. The Event Committee is incredibly excited about the outcome and the amount of funding raised for unexpected needs that have developed as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. The "event" garnered $3,000 in funds in just five days! Thank you to all who participated!
In 2019, the Junior League of St. Petersburg’s Fund Development Committee submitted 8 grant applications and was awarded a total of $10,500 in funding from the Pinellas County Foundation, Police Forfeiture Fund, and Women’s Service League. While the Women’s Service League funding has been put on hold due to COVID-19 impacts, the League will remain the recipient for the 2021 grant toward next year’s Care Fair. The funding received from the Pinellas Community Foundation and the Police Forfeiture Fund is being used to build upon and expand our annual projects and programs.

Care Fair is the Junior League of St. Petersburg’s Premier Event which has helped prepare school-aged children in St. Petersburg for school success over the last 22 years. With COVID-19 impacting the ability to obtain donations and agency fees to be used toward funding the event, the Police Forfeiture Grant has really assisted in allowing the Care Fair committee to serve as many children as possible with backpacks stuffed with school supplies and medical vouchers for school physicals, medical screenings, and immunizations. Additionally, the Junior League of St. Petersburg is committed to promoting literacy and early reading readiness among our youngest readers in St. Petersburg. In support of that commitment, our league received a generous grant from the Pinellas Community Foundation that will help us reach our literacy goals.

The Literacy Committee plans to partner with several of our local elementary schools to support literacy and early reading readiness by providing culturally relevant literature for their students. The Literacy Committee also plans to offer quick and easy reading strategies and reading tips for parents to foster literacy success and an early love of reading! Our goal is to get books into as many readers hands as possible. We want our local readers to find the magic within a book! “You can find magic wherever you look. Sit back and relax. All you need is a book.” - Dr. Seuss

The Fund Development Committee could not be more excited about grant successes in the 2019-2020 league, has submitted two grant applications to date, and has another four applications in process for the 2020-2021 league year.

ANNUAL PLAN UPDATES

By: Alicia McShea, Executive Vice President Elect

Each year the Management Team creates the Annual Plan designing goals that serve to further the priorities outlined in the Strategic Plan. The Strategic Plan is created by the Board of Directors every five years and provides guidance for setting goals at each level of membership. The purpose of the Annual Plan is to provide enough direction so that each Council and Committees can develop objectives that will align to support the JLSP’s goals.

Two of the Annual Plan goals this year are: 1) Launch and continue programs to support students subject to food insecurity by distributing 2,000 food supplies and 2) Provide 2,000 books to underserved children in St. Petersburg. A third goal addressing member engagement and retention is in the works.

This year Kids in the Kitchen is crushing the goal of 2,000 food supplies distributed already doubling the goal. As of 7/23, the committee has distributed 4,725 food resources to the community! The committee continues with their summer project of providing snack packs to the Boys & Girls Club. They have gotten creative with socially distant packing shifts and ways to distribute supplies to members to create snack packs at home. Thank you to all the members who have helped pack supplies to keep this program going over the summer!

The JLSP was awarded a $10,000 grant from the Pinellas Community Foundation for our literacy program. The Literacy committee is busy brainstorming a plan to provide books to the children of Pinellas County. They recently launched a survey to teachers at local schools gauging the needs of the teachers and students. Stay tuned for future opportunities to help get books in the hands of children in our community!
